DISTRICT COMMISSIONER

Not present but we have a new interim Commissioner, Deb Finneran

PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

Marlene wanted to thank all of the Clubs for last season. The 3rd Annual D6 Club President/Manager's Workshop was held. The focus was on concussions, basic information on registration, and insurance information.

FIRST VICE REPORT:

It was a slow year with very few Red Cards issued to SYSL last season. We switched PAD to phone conferencing. Bruce will send out the yearly PAD report.

HEAD COACH REPORT:

Bruce will put together an "F" clinic

HEAD REFEREE REPORT:

Ref Clinics to be hosted in SYSL: May in Greenhaven, July in Land Park.

June and August are still available– please let Bruce know if your club would like to host one of these months.

We need at least 15 attendees and can hold up to 35.

The Cups for the olders are coming up. Please let Bruce know if you have any referees interested and send him names and contact information.

TREASURER'S REPORT:

End of year report – (to be passed out next month)

REGISTRAR'S REPORT:

Jennifer passed around her annual report with yearly totals. SYSL had 460 teams last year and 6375 players (a 5% drop) There won't be a change in the CYSA fee structure for the upcoming year.

SECRETARY'S REPORT:

Greenhaven will host the April meeting, at the Didion Elementary School. The new hosting schedule for 2015-2016 was passed around. We still have one spot open for September.

COMMITTEE REPORT:

CCSL - There was a question about loosening our requirements for coaching in CCSL (F,E, and referee license). There are coaching clinics going on right now in District 6 (check website). There is an online "F" clinic.

OLD BUSINESS:

Affiliation status –

Marlene has sent out emails to those Clubs missing all or parts of their affiliation papers

Uniform check next month. Please bring to April Meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:

Elk Grove Recreational Youth Soccer League, aligned with Inter Rage, may try to take South Sacramento players.

A motion was made by Land Park and seconded by West Sac to only affiliate for Interleague play with one Club, Sac North. Motion passed 12-0-0.
